

Mary-Jo commenced her career as an Occupational Therapist in 1993, initially working at Parkwood Hospital in London, Ontario. It was there that Mary-Jo gained valuable knowledge and experience working in the Acquired Brain Injury Program. Over the years she has expanded her interests and area of practise to assessing and treating individual's with soft tissues injuries, chronic pain, and acquired brain injuries. She is Certified PGAP (Progressive Goal Attainment Program) Assessor and has extensive experience and training in driving evaluation and rehabilitation. Mary-Jo works out of the Kitchener Branch office.
